Special Guest Speaker:

Pastor
Gordon Coulter

Gordon Coulter comes to us from the Neighborhood Community Fellowship Wesleyan in Covina where he is the Pastor. He is also an Associate Professor at Azusa Pacific University and is the current Chaplain for the West Covina Police Department.

He co authored the book When Cookies and Milk Aren't Enough in 1996 and has worked on several articles and videos for publication in his field. He believes in "...serving Christ through the vehicle of youth ministry and pastoral ministry. I like to find creative ways to encourage men and women to continue their education in a practical educational model."

Pastor Coulter has been recognized for his work in many areas including Pastor of the Year for Pacific Southwest district of the Wesleyan Church in 2002 and the Rotary International Community Service Award in 1994
